FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ICISA to host its second edition of Trade Credit Insurance Week

The International Credit Insurance & Surety Association (ICISA) will be hosting a second edition of “ICISA Trade Credit Insurance Week” between 2 – 5 October 2023. Organised for the first time in September 2022, ICISA Trade Credit Insurance Week is a global event aimed at increasing awareness of the valuable economic role of the Trade Credit Insurance sector.

Throughout the week, industry experts will share their views about key developments and emerging challenges within the industry, as well as discuss the wider role played by Credit Insurance in trade. Through this series of events, ICISA hopes to increase awareness of this product and improve public understanding and awareness of the industry.

Organised as 8 online sessions, Trade Credit Insurance Week 2023 will address a number of important topics, such as Path to Growth, AI use in Credit Insurance, exploring TCI in Asia and more. Industry practitioners, policymakers, regulators, media, other trade associations and users of credit insurance are all welcomed to participate in ICISA Trade Credit Insurance Week 2023. The participation is for free and open to all.

Among the confirmed speakers of this edition are industry experts such as Antonio Fernández-Martos (DG Trade – European Commission), Anil Berry (Allianz Trade), Antonio Marchitelli (Coface), Stuart Lawson (Aon Credit Solutions) and many more. The full program of the week, the list of speakers and details about registration are published on: <https://icisa.org/event/trade-credit-insurance-week-2023/>.
